

Points	4	3	2	1	0
Craftsmanship Look of the costume and wig	The costume is impeccable and well-made or prepared. The shape falls perfectly, accessories and details are taken care of and are of high quality. The wig work is clean, and the costume wouldn't require any retouch afterwards in photoshop.	The costume is good. Most details are taken care of, and the shape fits. The wig work is nice. Barely anything would have to be retouched in photoshop.	Details are present but some things seem unfinished and a bit floppy. The costume doesn't fall exactly in place, the wig work is not neat. Some photoshop might have to be used to have a clean	minimal details, the cosplays quality is low. Costume looks unfinished and floppy. The wig work is low. A lot of photoshop would be necessary to retouch (wrinkles, threads, poor wig etc).	No details/technique, poorly executed and unfinished. Photoshop is not magic; it can't be fixed.
Makeup make-up for photography	The makeup technique is excellent, and the applicant understand how it works in combination with photography.	The makeup technique is great and well applied	The makeup technique is ok, but the applicant lacks the understanding of the effect of photography.	Minimal work on makeup and the applicant doesn't understand the correlation with photography.	No makeup skill, poor application, and no understanding of the fact that makeup is "eaten" away by photography.
Posing posing skills facial expressions	The applicant has a perfect understanding of his body and easily know how to pose it to archive a dynamic, intricate, and interesting result. Able to give a wide range of emotions and poses.	The applicant has a good understanding of posing to archive a nice and dynamic result. Able to give a significant range of emotion and poses.	The applicant understands how to pose. He's able to give a variety of facial expressions and poses.	The applicant has a basic understanding of posing and can propose simple poses without guiding. The range of facial expression is limited.	The applicant lacks in posing and in working their facial expression.